The adult Sunday school program is currently accepting suggestions for future study topics for classes beginning in 2012. If you have a suggestion, or an interest in leading or organizing a class please discuss your thoughts with Ned Nafziger, janed@sssnet.com, 330-37-0061.

Living more with less is not a new idea, but is seemingly more relevant as many Christians continue to deal with the concept of limited world resources and living our lives in a more Christ like manner. Join Ned Nafziger as he leads an adult Sunday School class discussing the writings started by Doris Jantzen Longacre. We will study and discuss issues such as money and stewardship, homes and home keeping, gardens and farms, cooking and eating, and how to help strengthen each other. This class will likely last approximately 12 weeks. The cost of your book will be approximately $12. This class will begin Sunday Oct. 23rd. A sign up sheet is available in the lobby.
