Living more with less is not a new idea, but is seemingly more relevant as many Christians continue to deal with the concept of limited world resources and living our lives in a more Christ like manner. Join Ned Nafziger as he leads an adult Sunday school class discussing the writings started by Doris Jantzen Longacre. We will study and discuss issues such as money and stewardship, homes and home keeping, gardens and farms, cooking and eating, and how to help strengthen each other. This class will likely last approximately 12 weeks. The cost of your book will be approximately $12. This class will begin Sunday Oct. 23rd. A sign up sheet is available in the lobby.

The Hesston College Bel Canto Singers, (INCLUDING Dayspring's own ALEX BARGERSTOCK) and director Bradley Kauffman will present a program of sacred choral music entitled "Attributes, Actions and Adulation" as part of the 22-voice mixed chamber choir's Fall Break tour to Indiana and Ohio. The program explores the attributes and actions of God and ways in which those qualities inspire God's people. A free-will offering will be taken to defer expenses of the tour. The concert is scheduled at Kidron Mennonite Church, Kidron, Ohio, Monday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. and Central Christian High School on Tuesday, Oct. 18 at 10:30 a.m.

Central Christian High School choirs and instrumental groups perform their Prelude and Dessert fall concert, on October 14 at 7:00pm in the Performing Arts Center.

A weekend of fun and games with a message is being planned for a children's conference hosted by The Lion and Lamb Peace Arts Center of Bluffton University. "Celebration of Peace: A Bridge Between Us" will take place on Oct. 21-22, 2011. Through music, storytelling, drama, art, cooperative games, multicultural interaction and more, students in grades 3-7 will consider the common ground that connects us and create "bridges" for understanding and building relationships within a global community. For information and registration visit www.bluffton.edu/lionlamb/bridges, or, call 419-358-3207.
