"I do not believe in a man's Christianity,
if the children are never to be found playing around his door."

-George MacDonald

I. Jesus loves little children.

A. We see it in his actions.

- He gathered them in his arms.
- He laid his hands on them.
- He blessed them.

B. We see it in his words.

- Let them come.
  - Let kids be kids !
- Do not _____ them.

May our chairs become worn in worship.

May our carpets show the stains of fellowship in Christian faith.

May our windows become smudged from many tiny hands.

May our parking lot collect the gravel from many car tires.

May our doors become worn from so much use.

May our utility bills reflect that this building is regularly used.

Remind us to worship You, and not the building with which You have blessed us.

May we always remember that this building is only a tool, and that we, Your people, are the church You choose to build.

Amen.
