The Sea of Galilee

14 After the people saw the sign Jesus performed, they began to say, “Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world.” 15 Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself. John 6: 14-15

I. What do we learn from watching Jesus?

A. Ministry needs often come in waves

B. Jesus aggressively defended quiet time when he had the chance

C. Immediate needs still trumped his need for rest

D. Jesus can do ANYTHING!
Because he is God!

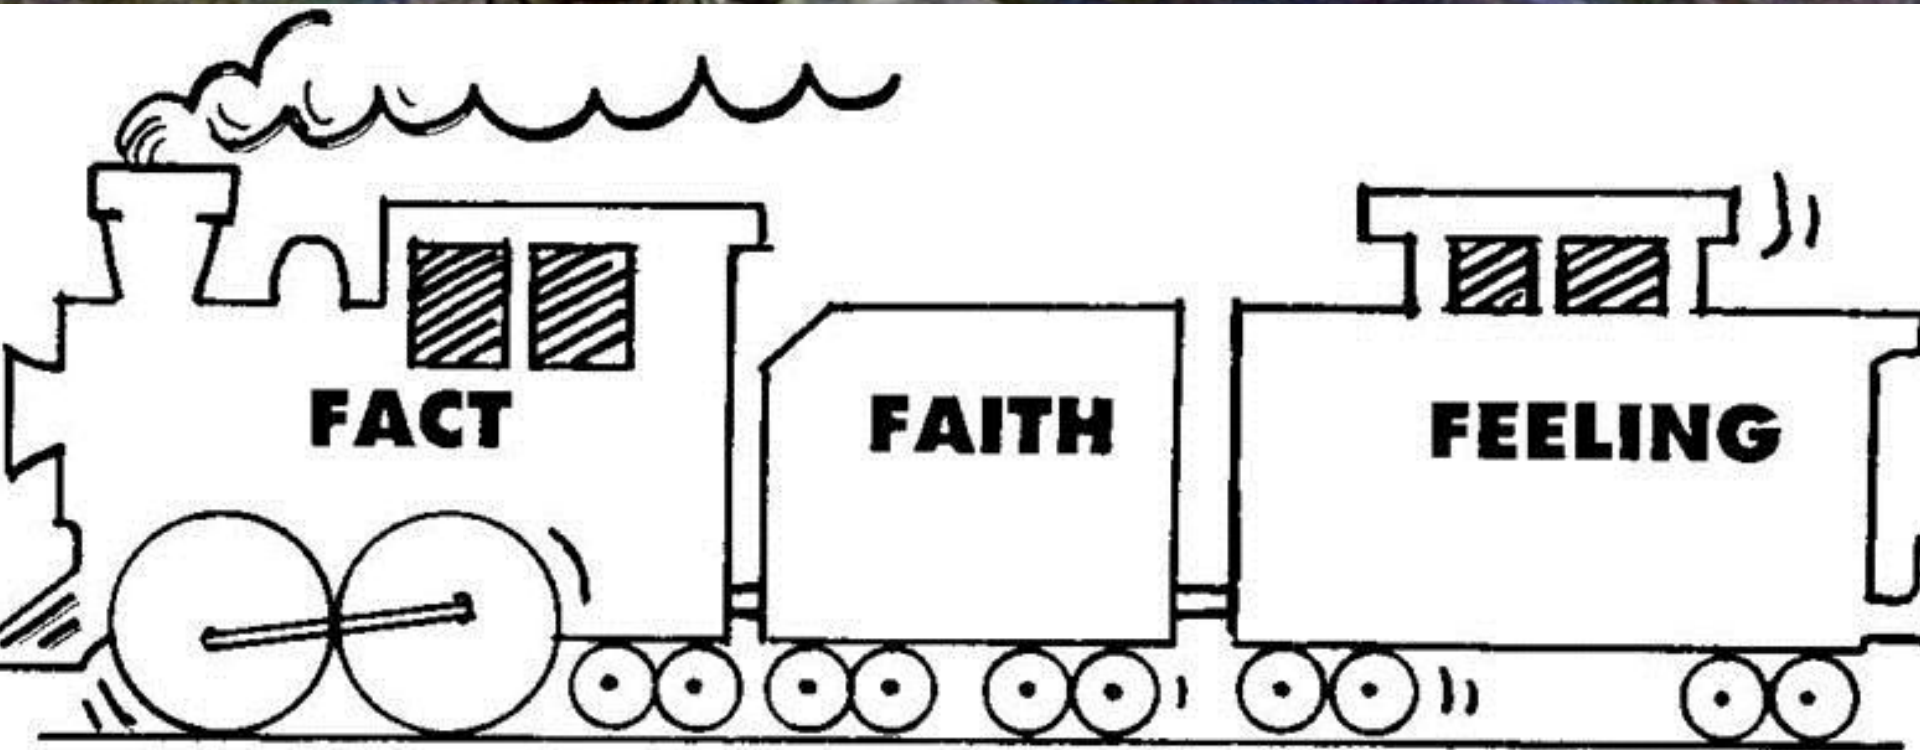

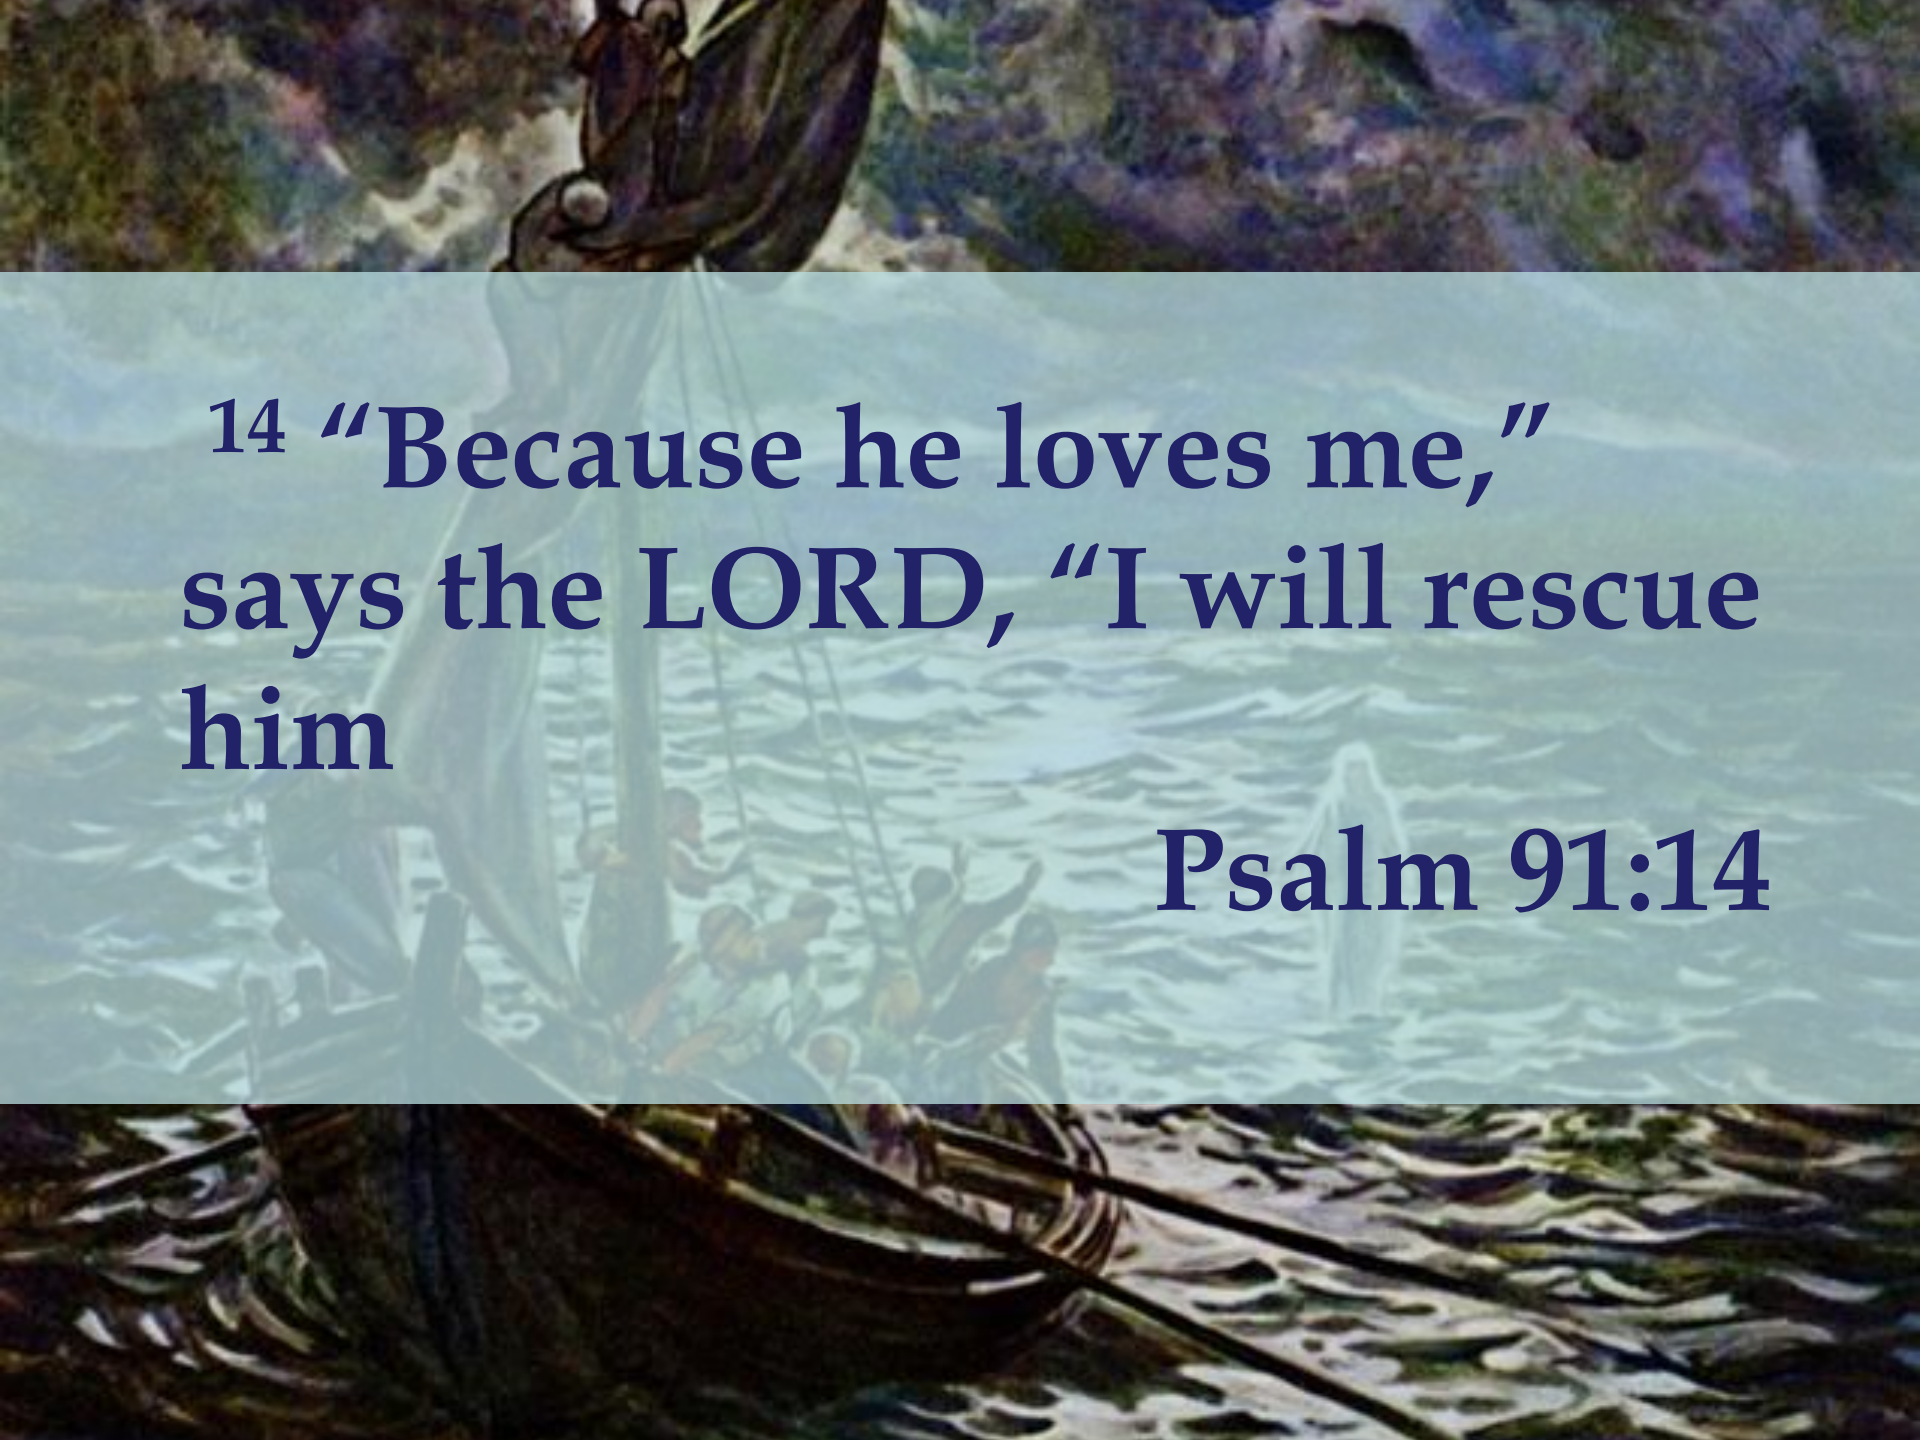

II. What do we learn from watching the disciples?

A. Exhaustion led to poor thinking which led to fear

B. The disciples were safe even though they didn't feel like it

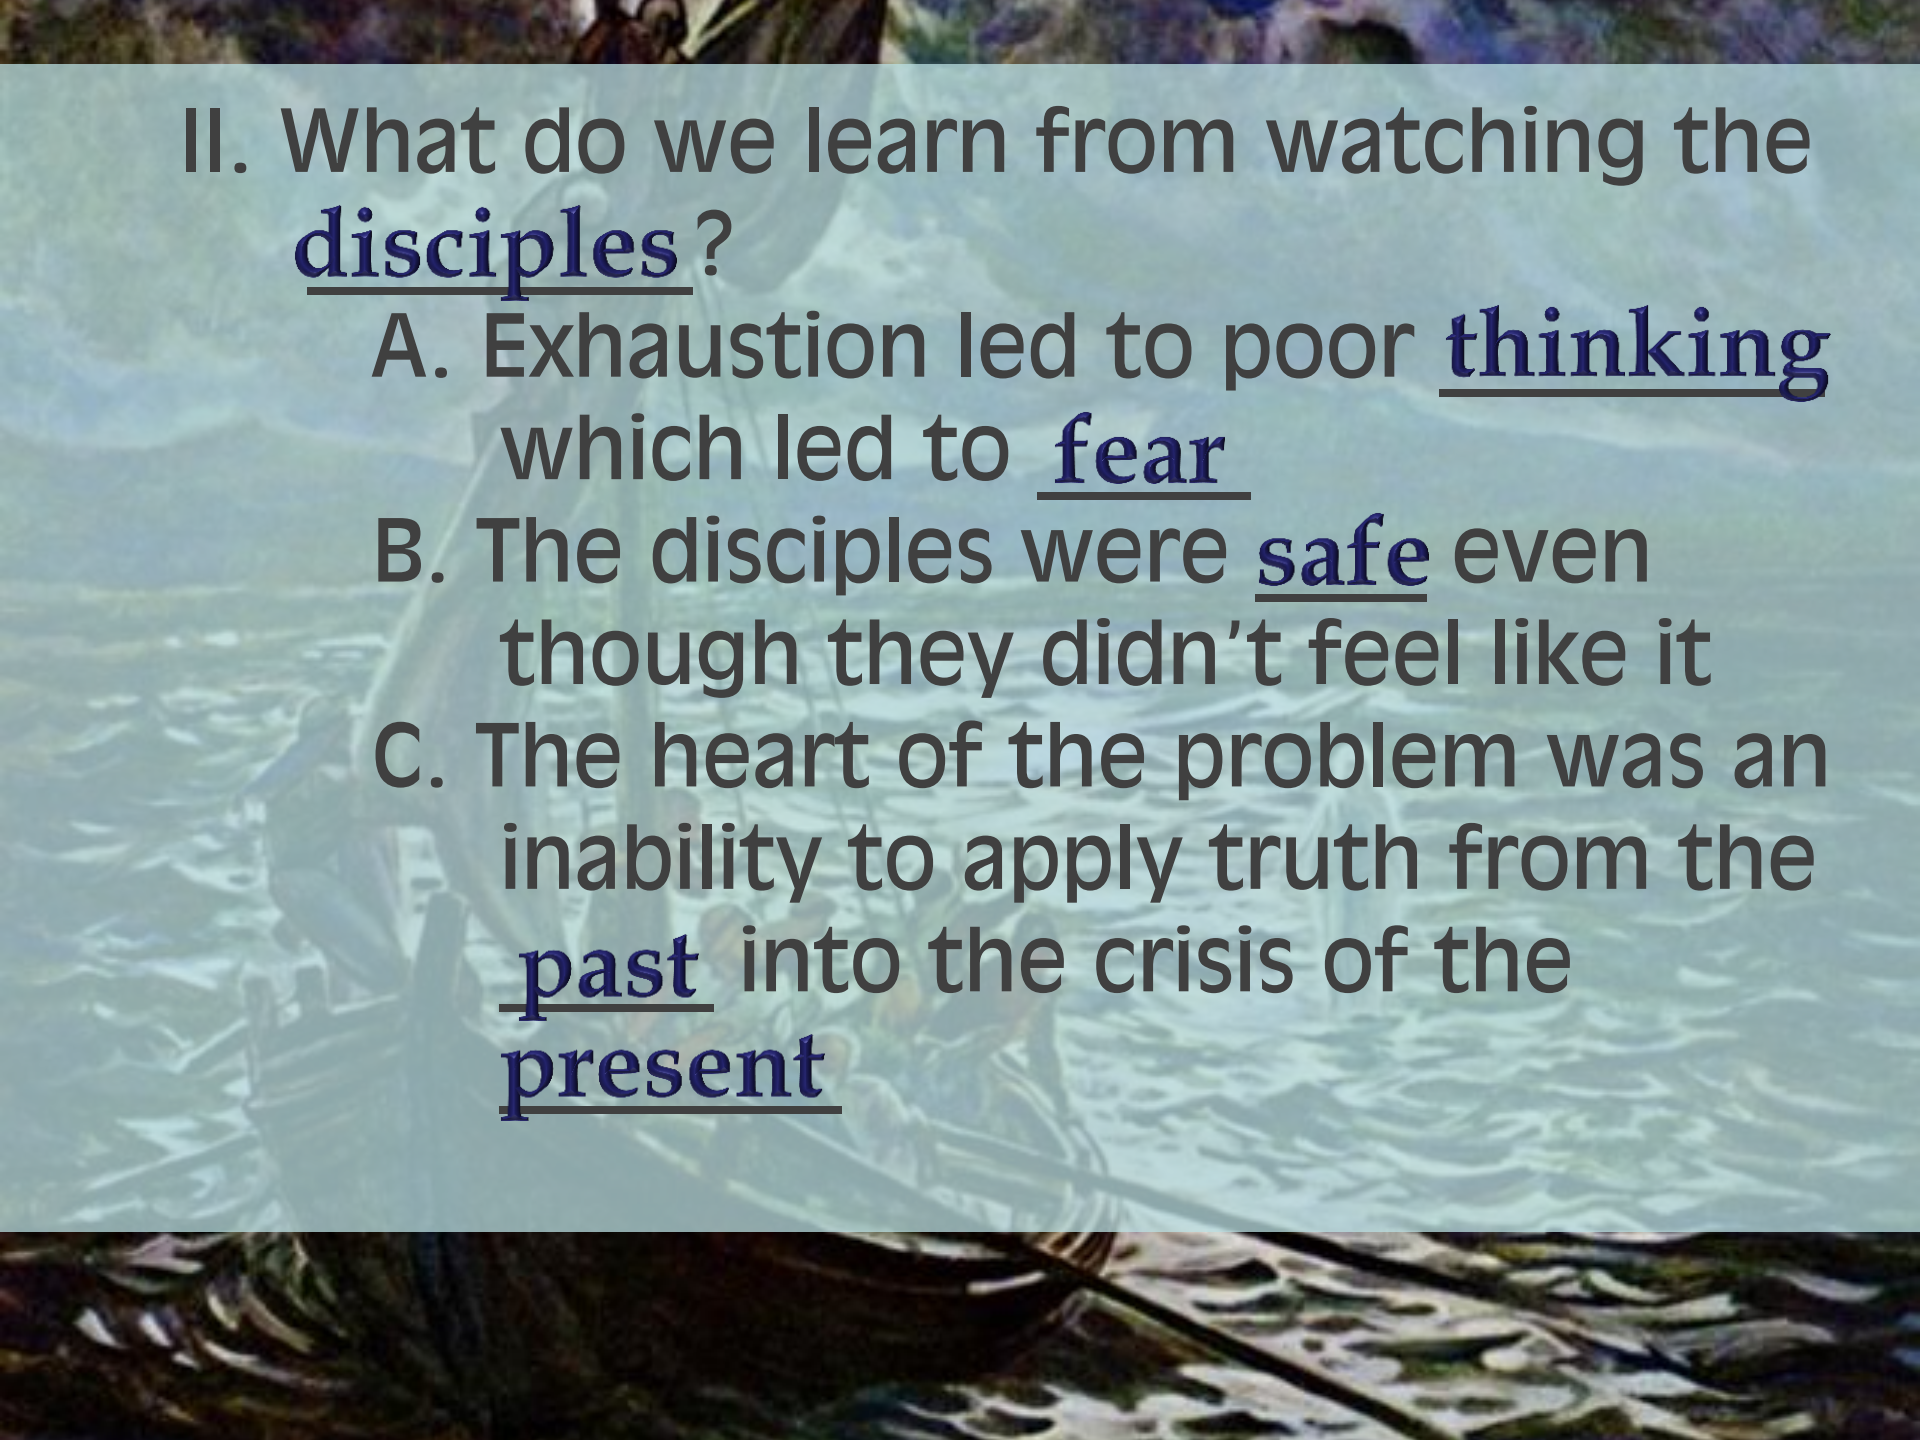

C. The heart of the problem was an inability to apply truth from the _____ into the crisis of the _____

A dramatic scene of a ship's mast and rigging over a turbulent sea. The sky is dark and stormy, with a bright light breaking through the clouds. The water is choppy and dark, reflecting the light from the sky. The ship's mast and rigging are visible in the foreground, and the sea is filled with waves. The overall mood is one of danger and hope.

Psalm 91:14

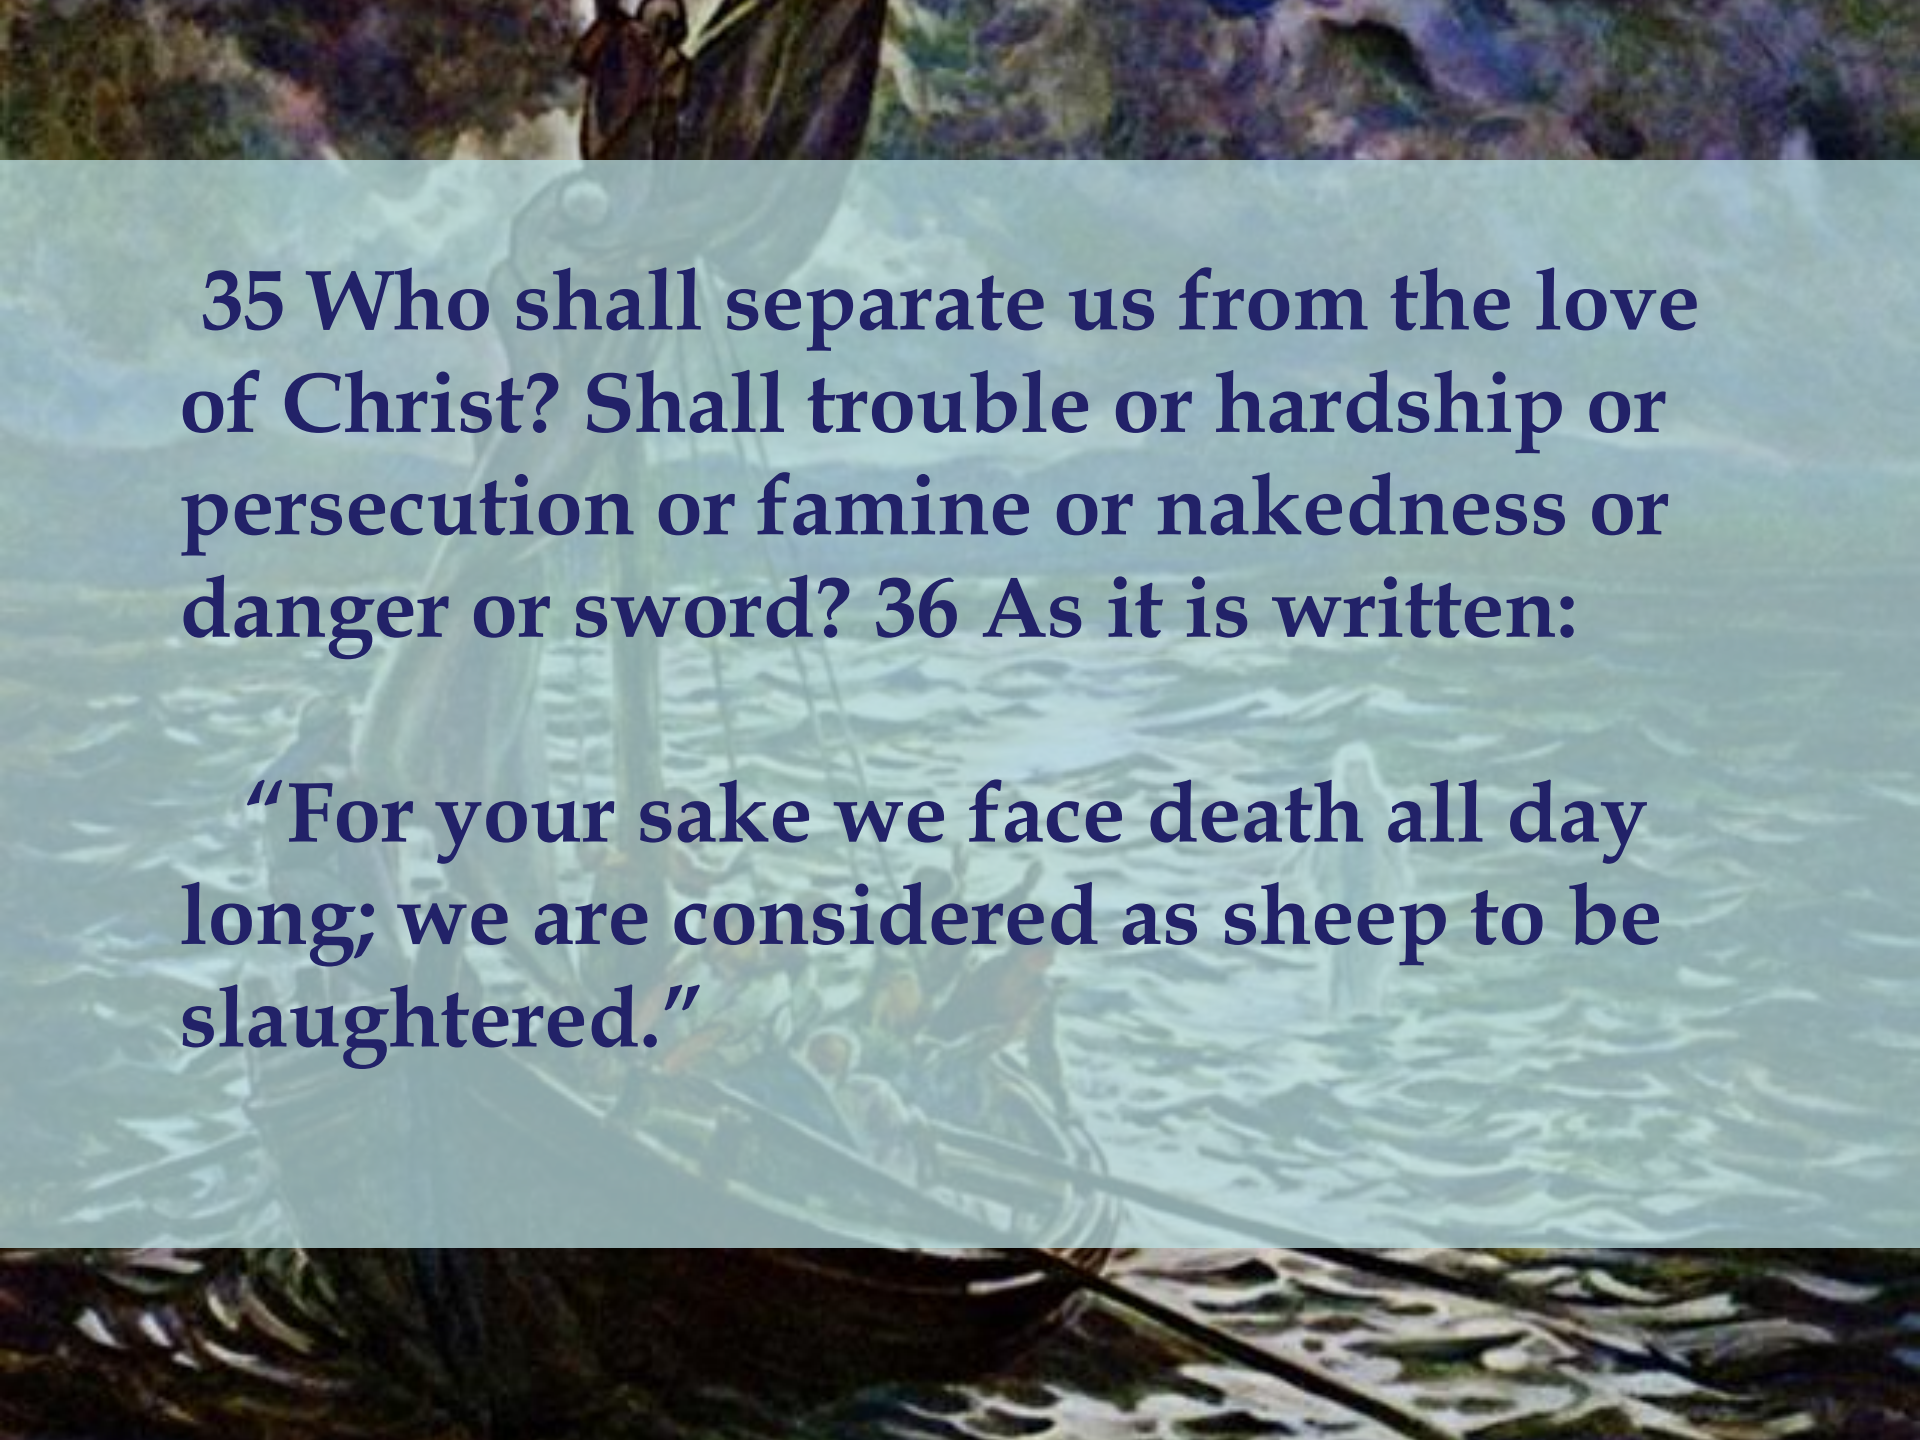

II. What do we learn from watching the disciples?

- A. Exhaustion led to poor thinking which led to fear
- B. The disciples were safe even though they didn't feel like it
- C. The heart of the problem was an inability to apply truth from the past into the crisis of the present

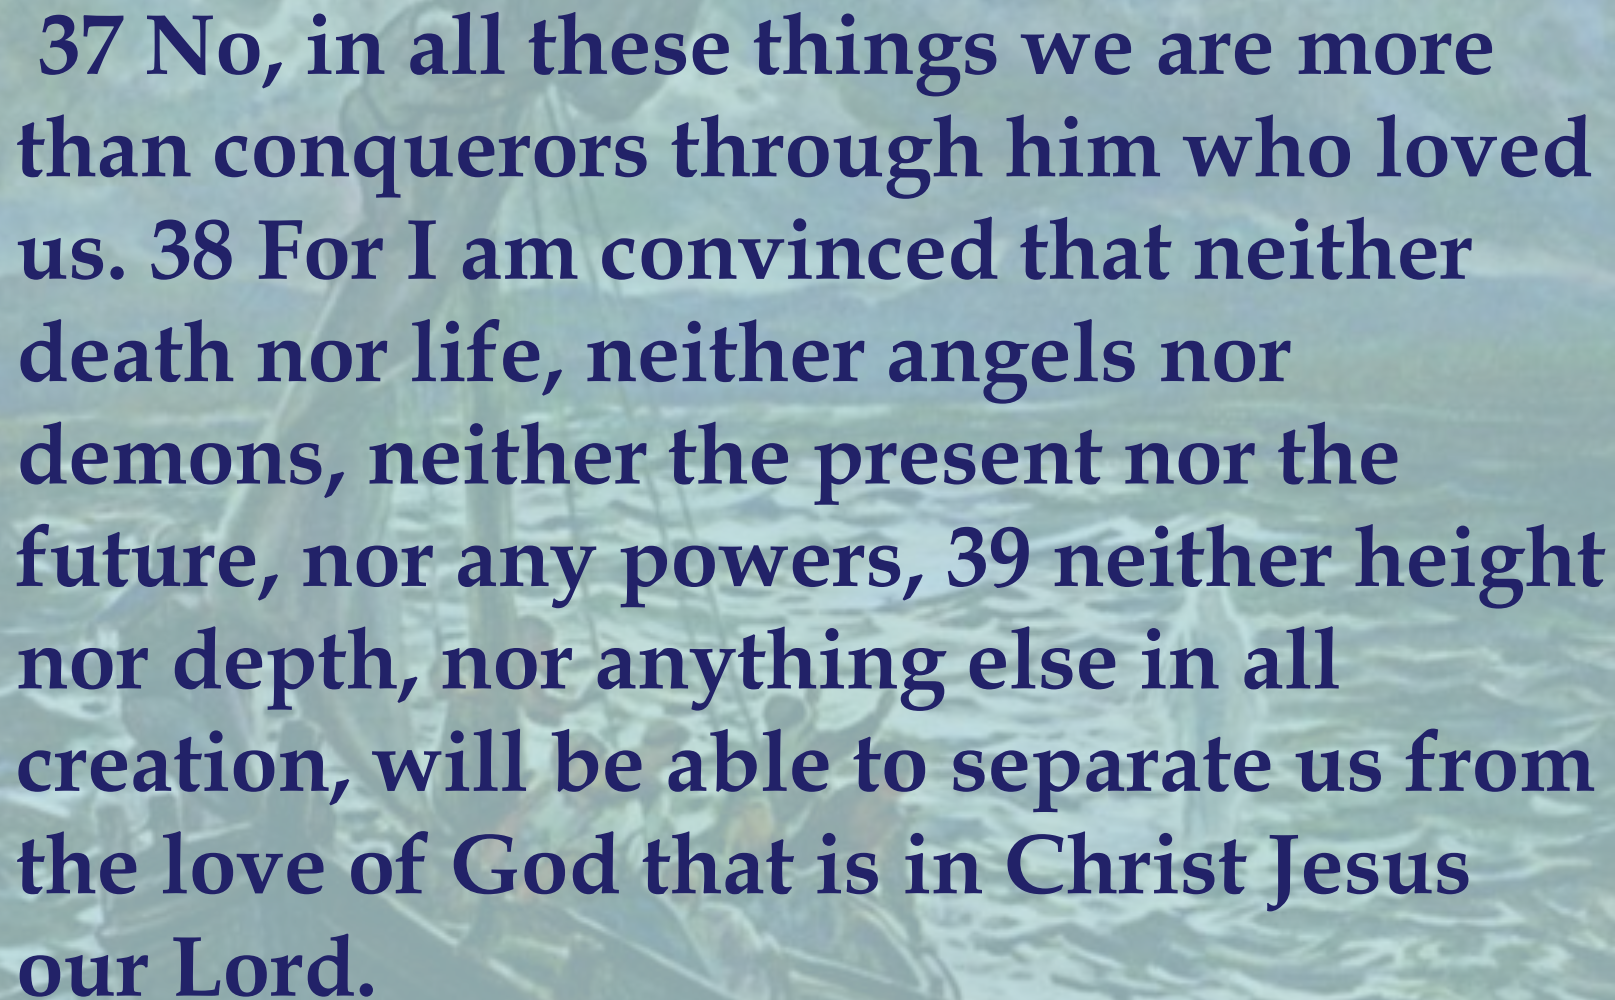

³⁷ Don't believe me unless I carry out my Father's work. ³⁸ But if I do his work, believe in the evidence of the miraculous works I have done, even if you don't believe me. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me, and I am in the Father.

John 10: 37-38

The background image shows a boat on a lake with a semi-transparent text overlay. The boat is a small, dark-colored vessel with a canopy, and it is positioned in the lower half of the frame. The water is calm, and the background consists of a hazy, light-colored sky and distant land. The text is written in a dark blue, serif font and is centered on the page. The text reads: "35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written:"

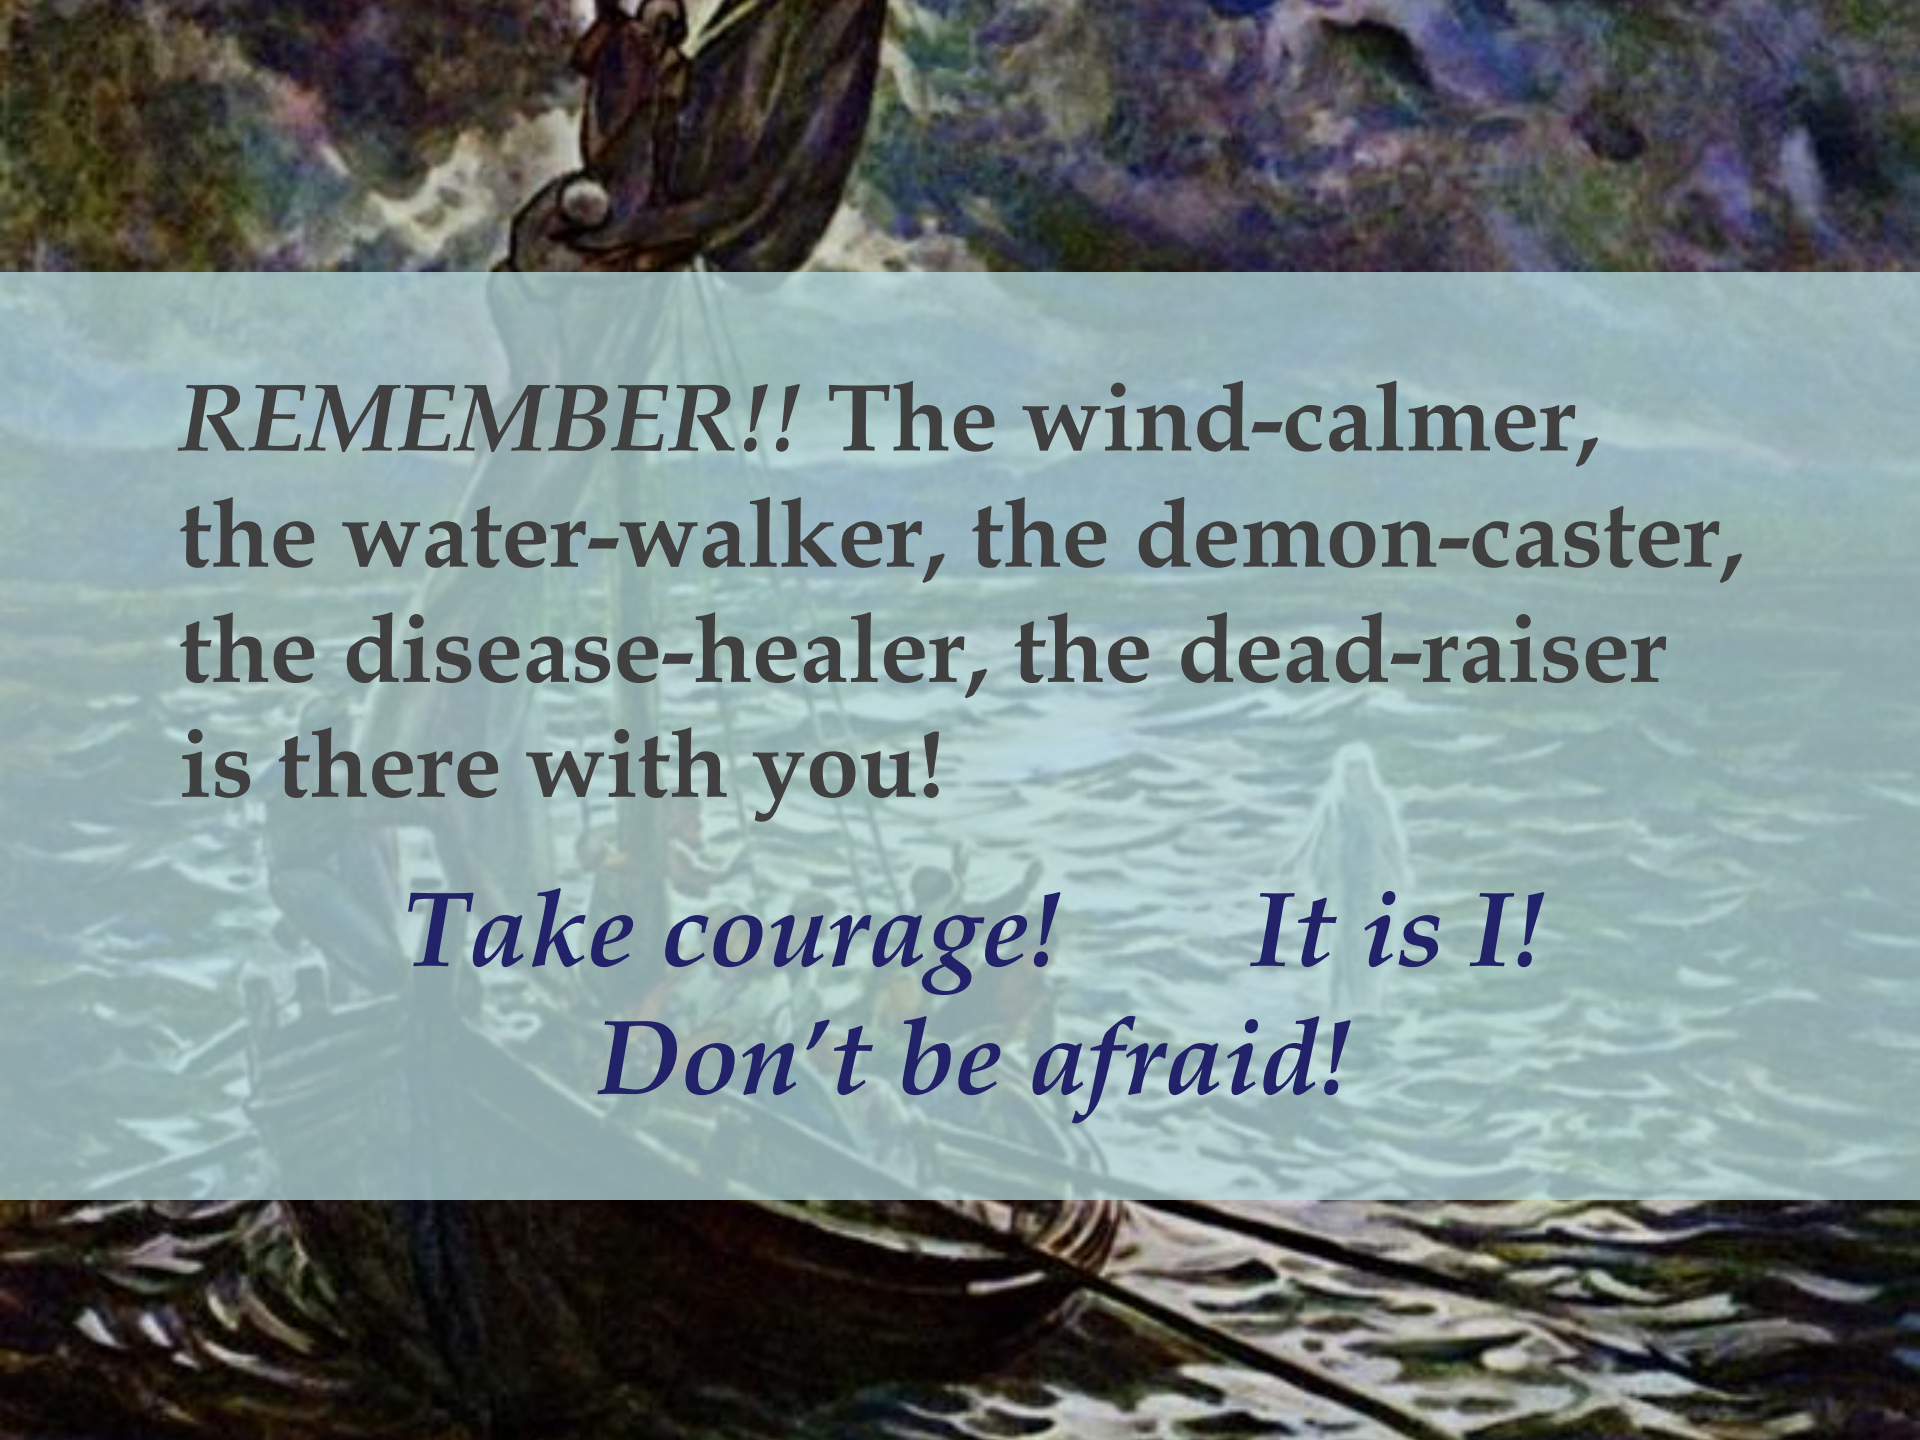

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written:

“For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

The background of the slide features a photograph of a person in a small boat on a river, with a semi-transparent text overlay. The text is in a dark blue, serif font and is centered on the page. The background image shows a person in a boat on a river, with a semi-transparent text overlay.

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8: 35-39

REMEMBER!! The wind-calmer,
the water-walker, the demon-caster,
the disease-healer, the dead-raiser
is there with you!

Take courage! It is I!
Don't be afraid!
